PAUSD will actively investigate all cases where it has reason to believe false information has been provided on this document or to any school/district official.

PAUSD employs Residency Officers to conduct periodic investigations so as to verify PAUSD district residency status, which may include home visits.

PAUSD may refer cases to the Santa Clara County District Attorney for further action, and/or may file civil action to recover damages incurred, as a result of parents/guardians intentionally providing false information.

Persons who provide false information are subject to criminal prosecution for perjury, which is punishable by fine and/or prison term (up to 4 years in state prison). [Family Code § 6552; Penal Code § 118 and 126]

Persons providing false information also are civilly liable for fraud, negligent misrepresentation, and negligence. Parties found civilly liable may be required to pay all damages, including punitive damages, caused to PAUSD as a result of providing false information. [Civil Code § 1709]

Persons who induce, obtain, or solicit another person to provide false information are subject to the same criminal prosecution, fines, and imprisonment as the person directly committing perjury. [Penal Code § 127]

Student(s) will be immediately withdrawn from his/her PAUSD school when investigations reveal that students were enrolled on the basis of providing false information, or are not living within the PAUSD district.
