Hello dears. Here's the "program" we talked about today:

Call to Service/Prelude: Love Is What I Got –Sublime

Performed by members of the Paly Choir with Guitar/Bass/ Piano
Accomp/Percussion

Welcome: Kim Diorio

Memory: Arne Lim, friend and colleague

Students:

- Students from his classroom lead the audience in the "clap"
- Share his daily quotes. (9-10 students, each with a quote, recite the quotes one at a time. Carolyn will organize kids next week. (Emily, I will run this by you)
- Announce tree planting and plaque ("There are good days, and there are better days – Kenyon Scott/Paly Science Teacher"? – don't know yet. This one is up to the kids, I think.)

JB

Family

- One or more siblings?
- Elizabeth & Emily? Sing along? (Beatles "Good Day Sunshine"?)

Choir: (MAYBE) May the Road Rise Up to Meet You- Traditional Blessing
Performed by the Paly Choir

End: Cal Fight Song – Paly Band

As folks wander towards the food: Harbor Lights – Bruce Hornsby

Other:

- Ask people to bring umbrellas
- Provide garbage bags

- Suggestion of Lynn and Bruce Hori playing a (Beatles?) song on ukulele and guitar (After Arne?)
- Scholarship fund announced via word of mouth
- Some kind of note on food tables that we will have KARA (grief counselors) there if anyone needs. I'll ask Jonathan to come up with a gentle wording and run it by you.

Tasks:

- Sound system, music (all) – Michael Najar. Michael and Emily working on play list?
- Food – Kelli will get word out to Paly staff, and may or may not have people specify sweet or savory. Family -- mention it to people if you think of it.
- Laurie will provide napkins and cups.
- Set up – Paly will handle
- Drinks – Several varieties of infused water.
- Alcohol is illegal on public school property – Although we can't be flagrant, no one will enforce.

Add/edit of course.

Big BIG love,
Carolyn
